MEMBERSHIP

The European Law Students' Association

[10/2022 – Current]

The membership at ELSA provides Law students with the opportunity to get acquainted with other young scientists from different countries and the cultivation of mutual understanding, communication and social sensitivity, through cooperation in the fields of legal sciences, education and professions. In addition, the purposes of the organization include the contact and familiarization of members with the legal systems of other countries and international relations through dealing with foreign legal orders and international law, as well as through personal meetings and the collection of personal experiences.
