Summary

I am a front-end developer looking for a full-time job. My goal every day is to make life, product, business, and ourselves better, and when I achieve this goal, the result exceeds expectations.

I have a good knowledge of HTML, CSS, JavaScript, and React. Additionally, I have experience working on commercial projects using the Agile/Scrum methodology.

I am independent, able to plan my time, passionate about learning, and tirelessly striving to develop myself.
